THE NOTICE

This Notice is served by the Council under Section 215 of the above Act because it appears to them that the amenity of a part of their area is adversely affected by the condition of the land described below.

THE LAND TO WHICH THE NOTICE RELATES

Land at 27 Pettits Boulevard, Romford, RM1 4PL as comprised in Title EX38029 as shown edged black on the attached plan.

WHAT YOU ARE REQUIRED TO DO

The Council requires you to carry out steps listed below to remedy the condition of the land:

1. To remove from the site to an authorised place of disposal, all refuse from the front curtilage including an abandoned fridge/freezer, rubbish and wooden pallets;

AND

2. To remove from the site to an authorised place of disposal the temporary hoardings and temporary gates surrounding the frontage of the property.

TIME FOR COMPLIANCE

The above steps are to be complied with in full within 28 days of the date on which this Notice takes effect that being no later than 20th September 2022.

WHEN THIS NOTICE TAKES EFFECT

This Notice takes effect on 23rd August 2022.

Dated: 25th July 2022

RIGHT OF APPEAL AGAINST SECTION 215 NOTICE
SECTIONS 217–218 OF THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990

217—(1) A person on whom a notice under Section 215 is served, or any other person having an interest in the land to which the notice relates, may, at any time within the period specified in the notice as the period at the end of which it is to take effect, appeal against the notice on any of the following grounds:

(a) That the condition of the land to which the notice relates does not adversely affect the amenity of any part of the area of the local planning authority who served the notice, or of any adjoining area;

(b) That the condition of the land to which the notice relates is attributable to, and such as results in the ordinary course of events from the carrying on of operations or a use of land which is not in contravention of Part III;

(c) That the requirements of the notice exceed what is necessary for preventing the condition of the land from adversely affecting the amenity of any part of the area of the local planning authority, who served the notice, or of any adjoining area;

(d) That the period specified in the notice as the period in which any steps required by the notice are to be taken falls short of what should reasonably be allowed.

(2) Any appeal under this section shall be made to the Magistrates Court acting for the petty sessions in which the land in question is situated.

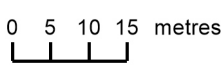

(3) Where such an appeal is brought, the notice to which it relates shall be of no effect pending the final determination or withdrawal of the appeal.

(4) On such an appeal the Magistrates Court may correct any informality, defect or error in the notice if satisfied that the informality, defect or error is not material.

(5) On the determination of such an appeal the Magistrates Court shall give directions for giving effect to their determination, including, where appropriate, directions for quashing the notice or for varying the terms of the notice in favour of the appellant.

(6) Where any person has appealed to a Magistrates Court under this section against a notice, neither that person nor any other shall be entitled, in any other proceedings instituted after the making of the appeal, to claim that the notice was not duly served on the person who appealed.
