Death Registrations

There is no requirement for relatives to collect the Medical Cause of Death Certificate from the GP, hospital, hospice or care home.

Bank holidays may delay when the Medical Examiner can send us the paperwork.

The Medical Examiner will contact the Next of Kin to advise the Medical Cause of Death Certificate has been sent to us, you will then need to book an appointment online

<https://www.havering.gov.uk/deaths-funerals-cremations/register-death>, please only book an appointment once you have received a call from the Medical Examiner's Office.

If a timely burial is required a green form can be issued, however we can only issue this on receipt of a Medical Cause of Death Certificate emailed to the Medical Examiner's Office. Providing the certificate meets the criteria for registration we can then issue the paperwork for the funeral to take place.
