Complaints

As part of our drive for better services, we want you to let us know when something goes wrong.

We define a complaint as any expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the Council's provision of, or failure to provide, a service for which it has responsibility, the action or lack of action by the Council, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual resident or group of residents and when it has not been put right in a reasonable timescale.

We will deal with your complaint using a two-stage complaints procedure.

Please follow the link to make your report:

www.haverling.gov.uk/complaints

The two stages of the complaints procedure

The Council encourages any customer who has a problem with a service they receive, due to a failure in the service, to report it.

The Council will seek to resolve complaints at the earliest opportunity. Where possible, every attempt will be made to deal with the issues quickly.

Full details can be found in our Corporate Complaints and Compliments Policy and Procedure document.

Stage one

All complaints will come into the triage team who will identify which route the complaint will follow.

We aim to contact you within five working days and a full written reply sent within ten working days.

If it involves a lot of issues and people, we may take an additional ten working days to reply.

We will let you know what we are going to do.

Stage two

If you are dissatisfied with the outcome of the Stage 1 investigation, you can request that your complaint is escalated to Stage 2.

A request to go to Stage 2 should be made by requesting an escalation, information on how to do this will be included in your Stage 1 response.

For those complaints, which progress to Stage 2, we will conduct a further thorough and proportionate investigation and provide a full, clear and honest response within 20 working days.

We will try to give you an answer within 20 working days and will let you know if we think it might take longer than this.

If you remain dissatisfied following the review of your complaint, you will be informed of your right to refer the complaint to the Housing Ombudsman Service.
